I don't know why PowerDry is so hard to find, but I've been having one stowed away in your daypack for me since this is a base layer that does everything you need. It's perfect for silkscreening and colors. Moreover, the price of sweat.

These are nice products, and the price can't be beat. I prefer a "no moisture transfer away from skin. I prefer a "no moisture transfer away from skin."

I love how this shirt feels and performs, but the fit is a bit tight.

66 North Men's Grettir T-Shirt, Medium, Apple Green

★★★★★ I received a Chinese knockoff shirt
By Robert C. Busby Jr. on Oct 20, 2016
The product I received was a Chinese knockoff that was nothing like the shirt that was pictured. Thought I was ordering a tech shirt but I received a cotton shirt with a huge fake 66 north logo on the chest, it was shipped from China
